MISSOULA PLANS WELCOME HOME CELEBRATION FOR GRIZZLIES

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana and the local community will team up Saturday night to welcome home the Grizzlies--win or lose.

Where: U.S. Forest Service Smokejumper Center's tarmac, just west of the main airport terminal on old US Highway 10.

When: Between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. Saturday. A more exact time of arrival will be announced late Saturday afternoon. Tune into your favorite radio or television station for up-to-date information, or call UM's arrival information hot line at 243-7014.

How to get there: Mountain Line will offer free shuttle buses to and from the event beginning 90 minutes before the flight arrives. Pick-up points are in front of UM's Harry Adams Field House, on the Ryman Avenue side of the downtown parking garage, and in front of the Missoula County Courthouse. Beach Transportation will offer free school-bus shuttles every 15 minutes beginning two hours before the arrival from the parking lots of Costco, Target and Buttrey's on North Reserve Street, and Sammons Trucking on West Broadway. The public may park their cars in the lots and ride the bus to the airport.

Please stress: Parking is almost non-existent at the celebration site, so please ride the shuttle; don't park along the highway; no alcoholic beverages; dress in warm clothes; and bring flashlights.
